NEWS OF SOUTH RICHMOND

SEARCH FOR BOY

Twelve-Year-Old Raymond Jenkins Missing From Swansboro Home.

A State-wide search was begun yesterday by the Southside police for Raymond Jenkins, twelve years old, who was missing from his home, 109 Clifton Street, Swansboro, since Monday evening. The boy came home from school and left his books and went out to play. Nothing has been seen of him since.

Parents of the boy are greatly dis-tressed by his absence. It is feared that he has been picked up by a band of horse-traders who have been camp-ing on Middleton Turnpike. The band broke camp Monday night and left for unknown parts in force.

Josh Long, colored, charged with as-sault and battery on the person of Martha Williams, colored, was dismis-sed upon payment of costs.

Upon producing a decree of divorce, properly signed by the court, Benja-min Mason, a Chesterfield negro, charged with bigamy, was dismissed by Justice Maurice. He was accused of marrying Faye Mason while another living wife was in force.

The injury to the hand of Miss Clara Holden, stamp clerk, is still keeping her from her duties at the office. The heavy window sash of the stamp window dropped with full force upon her hand and mashed four fingers.

Death of Infant.

Willard H. Purcell, Jr., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Purcell, died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at his parents' home, 3315 Stockton Street, Swansboro, of pneumonia. The funeral service will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the grave in Maury Cemetery.

Outline Laws of Organization.

An outline of the laws for the new school league was made last night by a special committee, which met at the office of Superintendent E. E. Smith, of the South Richmond public schools. The constitution and by-laws for the organization were not adopted, but will be presented at the first regular meeting, which will be held next Thursday night. The committee was composed of Mrs. W. J. Carter, Mrs. T. E. Burton, M. Z. Percival, J. E. Redford and W. F. Rudd. The name se-lected by them for the organization was "Southside Co-operative Educational League." A list of officers to be sug-gested for election will be put before the meeting next week.

Shamrock Tree Monday.

A Shamrock tree will be given at the home of Mrs. James P. Robinson, 1130 McDonough Street, Monday night, for the benefit of the Junior Young Women's Association. An interesting program has been arranged and re-freshments will be served.

Funeral of Mr. Moore.

The funeral of Thomas E. Moore, who died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Woodland Heights, was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from Sacred Heart Church, Eleventh and Perry Streets. Interment was in Mt. Calvary.

Negro Pleads Guilty.

Jim Hart, colored, who several months ago shot and severely wounded J. H. Bailey, a private detective, near Dunlop, Chesterfield County, was ar-raigned before Magistrate Lunde yester-day afternoon on a plea of guilty. He was sent on to the Chesterfield Circuit Court for trial. Hart, who claims to have Indian blood in his veins, is wanted in several parts of the State on felony charges.

Dimension Plant Sold.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., March 13.—The dimen-sion plant of the Wilkinson-Matthews Company, owned by J. H. Matthews, sold under proceedings in bankruptcy to Trustee George S. Boucher, was bought for $8,000. The plant is a manu-facturing company for $8,000. The plant is to have represented an investment of $20,000. The purchasers will operate the mill.

Auction Sales Future Days

BY J. THOMPSON BROWN, Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers.

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF FRAMES RESIDENCE, 612 S. 18th St., FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1912, at 5 P. M.

By virtue of deed of trust to the undersigned trustee, December 1912, and recorded in Deed Book 208-D, page 381, Richmond Chancery Court, to se-cure a loan of money, the following described, being requested by the beneficiary to do, I will proceed to sell at public auction, on the above date and date, said property, described in said deed as follows:

Beginning at a point on the west line of Laurel Street, 174 feet south of Church Street, thence running in a southerly direction, along the said west line of Laurel Street, and fronting thereon 25 feet; thence running back and between parallel lines 135 feet to an alley 20 feet wide; sale, and all undivided passed, divided (amounting to about $250), and the residue as follows: One note of $50, dated June 1, 1912; one note of $50, dated September 1, 1912; one note of $50, dated December 1, 1912; one note of $100, dated January 1, 1913. All above notes bear interest from date of sale.

J. THOMPSON BROWN, Trustee.

N. B.—While the property will be sold upon the above terms of the deed, easier and better terms may be had by payment of $250 cash and balance like rent, bearing interest 6 per cent.
